WISE insights for a brighter investment future

PORT OF SPAIN, July 11, 2025 – It was an intimate and informative affair, hosted by West Indies Stock Brokers (WISE), Director, Adrian Manmohan, in the breakfast hours of last Tuesday, at Queen's Park Cricket Oval, RBC box.

Manmohan, alongside his team of professionals, welcomed an exclusive group of interested clients to hear about recent market news and investment innovations from special guest, Eva Mitchell, Chief Executive Officer of The Trinidad and Tobago Stock Exchange (TTSE).

"We set up today's information session to give clients, a first-hand opportunity to learn about what's happening in the markets especially our local market and what advancements we can look forward to," said Manmohan who has over 25-years of experience and investment knowledge and is responsible for WISE's overall operations.

"During these unprecedented times of change, both in terms of geo-political uncertainty and technology advances, a steady and disciplined approach is needed. Our team helps you stay the course and to course correct when necessary to best navigate these uncertain times," he added.

Mitchell shared insights on the current market conditions and what the TTSE is doing to create the right environment for healthy investing opportunities.

She explained the extensive steps that the TTSE is taking to modernize its online trading platform, increase social presence, create accessible investor education and financial literacy programs and invite new players to the market.

"We know the market will not turn around overnight — but we are laying the foundation today for the recovery tomorrow. We are doing the work to ensure the TTSE remains a transparent, modern, and competitive platform where you can deploy capital with confidence and see real returns over time," said Michell.

Clients took part in a lively question and answer session with Mitchell and took the opportunity to meet the WISE professionals one on one and learn more.
